A NEW SON
At 10:30 a. m. yesterday, Albert O. North took on an air of dignity beyond anything he has yet attempted. All because at the hour above mentioned, an heir-presumptive appeared at his house—an eight pound boy. This is all very nice, but he ought to pass by his friends without speaking.

THE STEWARTS IMPROVED
The condition of Mrs. W. R. Stewart, who has been very ill with pneumonia, is reported today as most encouraging and it is believed she is now out of danger. As to W. R. himself, the cause of his indisposition has been more or less surrounded with mystery. The first diagnosis made reasonably sure of hypochondria engendered by present conditions in the real estate world; later on, the fact that he attended a Commercial club meeting and spoke only seven times produced the presence of tetanus. But last evening the tetanus came out, he has been suffering from a very painful inflammation of the subcutaneous tissue in the back of the neck—he's got a boil.

COMMERCIAL CLUB BANQUET
On the night of January 11, 1916, the members of the Commercial club will exercise their right of occasional exemption from labor and turn to amusement and merriment. The occasion is the banquet which is to be held at the Mesa union high school, the cuisine of which festival is to be in the capable hands of the domestic science class (the Commercial club is courageous—it will try anything once), and it is to be a big, get-together, roasting meeting for all citizens and citizens of this district. An interesting program is being prepared. There will be addresses by members

No matter what ails your feet or what under the sun you've tried without getting relief, just use "TIZ." "TIZ" is the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up the feet. "TIZ" cures your foot trouble so you'll never limp or draw up your face in pain. Your shoes won't seem tight and your feet will never, never hurt or get sore and swollen. Think of it, no more foot misery, no more agony from corns, callouses or bunions.

TEMPE ALIVE WITH CHRISTMAS CHEER

Exercises at Schools and More of Them at Churches on Christmas Eve

That the spirit of Christmas time will reach to practically every home in Tempe is well evidenced from the elaborate programs and exercises that were carried out yesterday at the training and normal school, that will be continued today in the two grammar schools and that have been arranged for each of the various churches in the city to be held on Christmas eve. Then too, philanthropic day with its offering of groceries, clothing and other wearing apparel will be held on the night of December 26th and through the good offices of the ladies of the town the poor people will be supplied with the necessities of living.

Though there is to be no generally public affair for Christmas, the children of the town are so well distributed about the schools and churches that the spirit of Yuletide will well reach to within every home. On Christmas eve, each of the churches have arranged appropriate children's exercises and Jolly Old Saint Nick will find time to stop long enough to say hello and distribute his list of presents.

The plans for Philanthropic day are going steadily forward. As an after attraction to the program to be given in the evening, light refreshments will be served by the young ladies of the Normal Y. W. C. A. and the proceeds will go towards the fund of the day.

LECTURE POSTPONED
Due to delayed trains on the main line, Dr. Foster of the University of Arizona, failed to arrive for his scheduled lecture on "The Rhine Valley" at the high school auditorium last evening. The lecture has been set for the evening of January 6th.

THIS SUITS HIM
Marquis Rich, exactly the same Marquis Rich and as thoroughly in love with the Salt River valley as ever, returned to Tempe yesterday morning where he, until a year ago was proprietor of one of the town's best tailor shops. Since leaving here he has visited the coast and for a number of months he was in business in New Mexico but from them all he selects no better place than the Salt River Valley to live. That he will make the valley his future home, Mr. Rich is positive and he is considering strongly the return to business in this city.

THERE ARE NO BETTER
In addition to the large business that the Hyder Brothers Haberdashery house in Tempe does locally the house engages in quite a mail order business and particularly at Christmas time is this apparent. Normal students, some of them who years ago, attended the normal, write to Hyder for goods they especially want and which they are sure they can secure to best advantage here. It was with pleasure that Kelly Hyder received in his mail yesterday morning orders for various articles, one from the extreme east of the state and one from the south, among them, and needless to say it was with double pleasure he supplied the wants and mailed to arrive for Christmas.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY
The funeral of A. B. McQueen, who died in Tempe last Monday, was held yesterday afternoon from the Moore and Wickliffe undertaking parlors, Rev. Wilbur Fisk, officiating. Interment was made at the Double Butte cemetery. The deceased's home was in Hayden and a number of the friends and relatives were here for the funeral.

"RUMPELTILTSKIN" TONIGHT
"Rumpelstiltskin" a picture with just as much to it as there is to the name, is the offering of the opera house management for this evening's bill. It is a four-part Mutual-Masterpiece picture, built especially for the children. The leading part is taken by Clyde Tracy assisted by Elizabeth Burbridge.

CHRISTMAS AT THE P. O.
The usual holiday rush is on at the post office and according to the post master, the rush is just as large this year as ever. Service on Christmas day will be extended about as usual. The general delivery window will be open for an hour in the forenoon and the rural route and city carriers will make their trips as usual. This is the one holiday on the whole calendar that the carriers go out but with the excess Christmas parcels, it is almost necessary that the delivery be made.

NORMAL'S CHRISTMAS
Tempe normal and the training school closed their doors for the holidays yesterday and during the course of last night and today over two hundred of the students will have departed for their homes in the various parts of the state. At the normal yesterday morning, the students
